

It is my hope that you will look kindly on RM-10765. These broadcasts have been a great help in setting up our RTTY machines and they also act sorta like a beacon in that if we can hear it, there should be others out there to hear and communicate with also.